I am trying to use a sed command to replace one variable with another. sed -i "s/${var}/${var2}" test.json This is because I want to replace the value in parenthesis in the variable with the actual value, i.e. ${var} with ${var2} but that is not working. A: Use the following command sed -i -e "s/\${var2}/${var}"/" test.json Or sed -i -e "s/\${var}\}/${var2}/" test.json A: Use this for a JSON specific answer: # escape the curly braces var2=${var/\{ } # use the shell and the parameter expansion with a backslash to escape the value var2=${var/\{ } # remove curly braces var2=${var/\{ } This shows how to use parameter expansion to do what you want: $ echo -e '\{1\} \{2\}' \{1\} \{2\} $ echo -e '\{1\} \{2\}' \{1\} \{2\} $ echo -e '\{1\} \{2\}' \{3\}' \{1\} \{2\} \{3\} $ echo -e '\{1\} 4bc0debe42
